1. Unusual Circumstances

- My request to be independent of my parents for financial aid purposes was approved last year and my family situation has not changed. Supporting documents not required, but we may follow-up with you.
- I have an unusual family situation, making it difficult to obtain my parents' information. Examples include, but are not limited to: abusive family environment, abandonment, incarceration or institutionalization of both parents, parents lacking the physical or mental capacity to raise a child, parents cannot be located, etc. Must submit supporting documents below.

To complete an appeal for unusual circumstances, submit the following items along with this form:

- A written statement describing your special circumstance(s).
- Two letters from outside parties (i.e. counselors, teachers, physician, clergy member) who have knowledge of your circumstances. Letters is required to be on official letterhead or notarized.

2. Parent Refusal

- My parent(s) do not want to provide their information on the FAFSA and they do not and will not provide any financial support for me. Financial support includes payment of educational expenses, cash and non-cash support, or any living expenses (including living at home with my parents). To approve a Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, we require the following certification from your parent.

Parent Refusal Certification

I understand that by refusing to provide information on the FAFSA my child will not be considered for Federal Pell Grant, other federal or state grants, work-study, or Federal Subsidized Stafford Loans. I understand that my child will only be eligible for a Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, which may not cover all of the educational expenses. I also understand that I can make a correction to the FAFSA to enter my financial information so my child can receive full financial aid consideration and that doing so does not obligate me to borrow educational loans on my child's behalf or pay my child's tuition or other charges. I certify that I ended all financial support for my child on: _____ (Date support ended).
